This notice requires you by law to send us a tax return giving details of income and disposals of chargeable assets, and any documents we ask for, for the year 6 April 2021 to 5 April 2022.

You can file the tax return using either:

- this form and any supplementary pages you need
- the internet (you'll need to buy commercial software). Most people file online. If you file online you'll receive an instant online acknowledgement telling you that we've received your tax return safely. To file online, go directly to our official website by typing www.gov.uk/file-your-self-assessment-tax-return into your internet browser address bar. Do not use a search website to find HMRC services online

Make sure that your tax return, and any documents asked for, reach us by:

- 31 October 2022 if you complete a paper tax return
- 31 January 2023 if you file online

Please see the Partnership Tax Return Guide for filing dates if this notice was given after 31 July 2022 or if the partnership includes a company as a partner.

Each partner who was a member of the partnership during the return period is liable to automatic penalties if the Partnership Tax Return does not reach us by the relevant filing date shown above. They'll have to pay interest and may have to pay a late payment penalty on any tax they pay late.

We check all tax returns and there are penalties for supplying false or incomplete information.

Who should send the Partnership Tax Return?

If this Partnership Tax Return has been issued in the name of the partnership, then the partner nominated by the other members of the partnership during the period covered by the tax return is required by law to complete it and send it back to us. If the partners are unable to nominate someone, they should ask us to nominate one of them.

If this Partnership Tax Return has been issued in the name of a particular partner, that partner is required by law to send it back to us.

The Partnership Tax Return – your responsibilities We've sent you pages 1 to 8 of the tax return for the most common types of partnership income. You might need other supplementary pages, which we have not sent you, for other types of income and disposals.

You are responsible for making sure that you have the right pages. Answer the questions on page 2 of this form to find out if you have the right ones.

You should make sure that the information needed by individual partners to complete their personal tax returns is given to them as quickly as possible (some partners may want to send their own returns by 31 October 2022).

If you need help:

- refer to the Partnership Tax Return Guide, go to www.gov.uk/taxreturnforms
- phone the number above we can answer most questions by phone
- when the office is closed, phone our helpline on 0300 200 3310 for general advice
- go to www.gov.uk/self-assessment-tax-returns

Partnership Statement (short) for the year ended 5 April 2022

Please read these instructions before completing the Statement

Use these pages to allocate partnership income if the only income for the relevant return period was trading and professional income or untaxed interest and alternative finance receipts from UK banks and building societies. Otherwise you must download the 'Partnership Statement (Full)' pages to record details of the allocation of all the partnership income. Go to www.gov.uk/taxreturnforms

- Step 1 Fill in boxes 1 to 29 and boxes A and B as appropriate. Get the figures you need from the relevant boxes in the Partnership Tax Return. Complete a separate Statement for each accounting period covered by this Partnership Tax Return and for each trade or profession carried on by the partnership.
- Step 2 Then allocate the amounts in boxes 11 to 29 attributable to each partner using the allocation columns on this page and page 7, read the Partnership Tax Return Guide, go to www.gov.uk/taxreturnforms
 If the partnership has more than 3 partners, please photocopy page 7.
- Step 3 Each partner will need a copy of their allocation of income to fill in their personal tax return.
